- 1. Through an apparent error in the rouching of reference dispatch and related material, the original copy of NOV-A-83, addressed to the Chief of Station, I donether with the enclosed letter, was missent to this office. It was relayed from here to I des promptly as possible, and I am cabling you today with the idea that you may have to take appropriate steps with I dif the delay involved in this misrouting will damage the effectiveness of your operation.
- 2. In retranguitting this material to Z Is covering letter down the signature of L I recommended that the Chief of the L Istation carry out your requested instructions. Indeed the circumstances, however, it would have been such easier for us to have rectified this error had we been savised of the contents of the letter which the L Istation was requested to mail.
- 3. We do not wish to look over your shoulder at every word of your propaganda activities, but since projects of this nature are highly solective and are capable of causing considerable reservessions, it will be nost helpful to us in the future if we can be supplied here with laglish translations of such letters.
- 4. I make this request solely from the standpoint of operational efficiency. A detailed knowledge of activities much as this one will emable us both to evaluate their results quickly and to guide other operations to take a maximum advantage of these results.
